PART I.

IMPORTANT GOVERNMENT ORDERS.

CHIEF SECRETARIAT.

Directs that the Training of Patels be made compulsory in certain cases.

READ—

Government Order No. R. 7909-16—L. R. 433-26-2, dated 26th May and 6th June 1927, directing the opening of Training Schools for Village Officers in the Districts of Bangalore and Mysore as an experimental measure.

2. Government Order No. R. 8805-11—L. R. 412-27-3, dated 15th May 1928, directing that the training of Shanbhogs ordered in Government Order No. R. 7909-16—L. R. 433-26-2, dated 26th May and 6th June 1927, be made obligatory in certain cases.

3. Correspondence ending with letter No. D. (2) Dis. 36—28-29, dated 10th—12th July 1928, from the Revenue Commissioner, in Mysore stating, that the training may be made compulsory in the case of Patels also.

ORDER NO. R. 1147-63—L. R. 231-27-151, DATED 9TH—10TH AUGUST 1928.

In their Order of 26th May and 6th June 1927 read above, Government directed the opening of Training Schools in Bangalore and Mysore for Village Officers as an experimental measure. But the training contemplated was optional. In their Order of 15th May 1928 read above, Government have directed that the training should be made obligatory in the case of all Shanbhogs who have not worked for at least three years and are less than 35 years old.

2. The question of making the training compulsory for Patels also has been under the consideration of Government for some time past. The Revenue Commissioner who was consulted in the matter is agreeable to the proposal of making the training compulsory in the case of Patels also. Government are accordingly pleased to direct that the training be made compulsory for Patels also, under the same conditions as those laid down for Shanbhogs in the Government Order of 15th May 1928 referred to above.

N. MADHAVA RAO,
Chief Secretary to Government.

Appointment of A Separate Amildar for Bangalore City.

READ—

Letter No. 5522—27-28, dated the 13th June 1928, from the Revenue Commissioner in Mysore, forwarding the proposals of the Deputy Commissioner, Bangalore District, in the matter of having a separate Amildar for Bangalore City with a defined jurisdiction.

ORDER NO. R. 1205-64—L. R. 524-27-6, DATED 10TH AUGUST 1928.

The Revenue Commissioner states that the Bangalore Taluk has become too heavy to be managed by a single Amildar. The mere routine and special calls on the Amildar's time are stated to absorb so much of his attention that he has very little leisure left to devote himself to questions concerning the welfare of the people. Income-tax work constitutes a considerable addition to his duties. There is lack of continuous supervision over the work of the office staff, with the result that arrears have accumulated. Government agree with the Revenue Commissioner in the view that some relief is necessary.

2. The Deputy Commissioner, Bangalore, has submitted through the Revenue Commissioner, the following proposals in this connection. There is to be an Amildar for Bangalore City with jurisdiction over the Kasaba and Yesvantpur Hoblis. Part of the existing staff of the Bangalore Taluk Office, as noted below, is to be added on to the establishment of the City Amildar :—

(1) Shekdar of Kasaba Hobli with his peons.
(2) Shekdar of Yesvantpur Hobli with his peons.
(3) Income-tax Shekdar.
(4) Shekdar for the execution of Co-operative Decrees with his peons.
(5) Muzrai Clerk.
(6) Special Staff (2 gumastas).
(7) One gumasta on Rs. 30.

3. The following additional establishment is also proposed :—

(1) Head Gumasta on Rs. 40.
(2) Head Munshi on Rs. 35.
(3) Two process servers on Rs. 15—1—20.

Menial Establishment.

(4) One Duffedar on Rs. 14.
(5) Two peons on Rs. 12 each.
(6) Four peons on Rs. 11 each.

The new Amildar will thus be responsible for the administration of 98 villages, both Government and Inam, and for a total revenue, under all heads of a little over 12 lakhs of rupees.

4. The Revenue Commissioner endorses the proposal of the Deputy Commissioner with the modification that instead of six peons, only four, two on Rs. 12 and two on Rs. 11 may be given. Government, however, are of opinion that even with this reduction the scale of additional establishment proposed is heavy and capable of further reduction. Instead of having one Head Gumasta on Rs. 40 and one Head Munshi on Rs. 35 it will be enough, if one clerk on Rs. 35, is given. It is not necessary to grant a duty allowance of Rs. 50 to the City Amildar when he is in receipt of a fixed travelling allowance of Rs. 50. With these modifications, the additional establishment required will be as follows and the same is sanctioned for a period of two years.

	Average cost. Rs.
(1) City Amildar 150—25/2—250 ..	212⅔
(2) Fixed travelling allowance Rs. 50 ..	50
(3) One clerk on Rs. 35 ..	35
(4) Two process servers on Rs. 15—1—20 ..	36⅔

Menial Establishment.

(5) One Duffedar on Rs. 14.	..
Two peons on Rs. 12 each	..	60
Two peons on Rs. 11 each.	..
(6) Contingent grant ..	..	5

389$\frac{8}{9}$ per mensem.
or Rs. 4,786$\frac{2}{3}$ per annum.

5. The Revenue Commissioner is of opinion that the services of the Special Duty Amildar will have to be continued till the end of December 1928, and that being the case, there is no necessity to appoint another officer. He suggests that the Special Duty Amildar might be directed to do the duties of the City Amildar and that the Record of Rights work might be attended to by him and by the Taluk Amildar in their respective jurisdiction. He proposes that half of the extra cost due to the bifurcation of the taluk might be met from the allotment for Record of Rights and the balance sanctioned as an additional grant to the Revenue Department.

6. Government approve of these proposals as a temporary measure for a period of two years. The arrangements will come into effect from 1st October 1928. A demand for a supplemental grant of Rs. 2,400 will be placed before the Legislative Council at its next session.
